To the senior class each year we look for hopefully enthusiastic leadership in the many activities which combine to form the life of the school and which contribute to the establishment of its traditions.

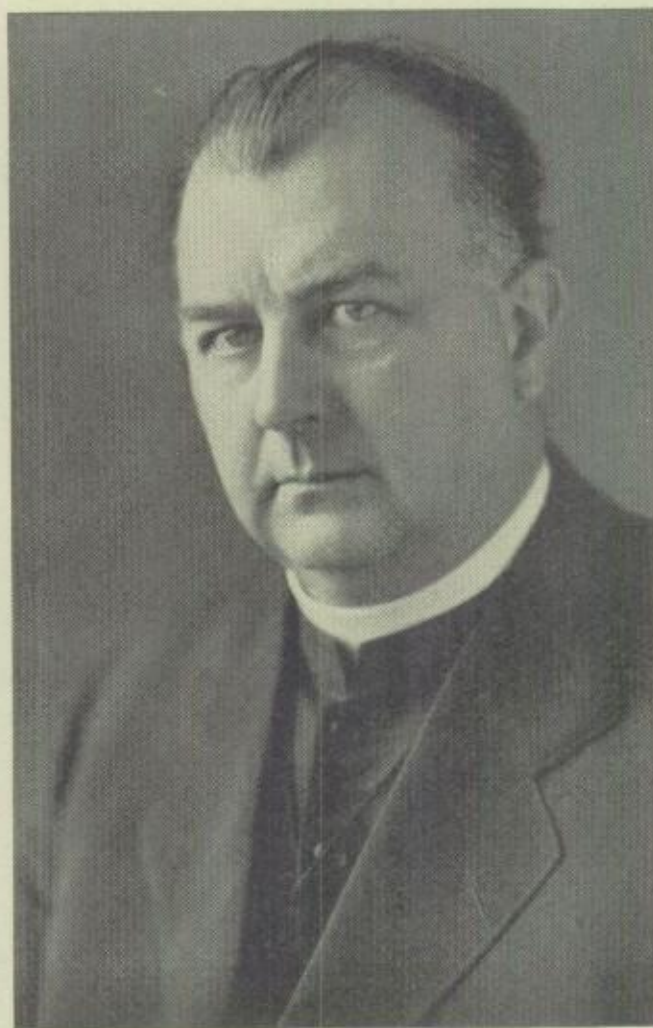

To the graduates of 1933 who have responded to our hopes, to the underclassmen who joined them, to the generous Faculty, who inspired all, a word of appreciation and gratitude is sincerely given.

Outward Bound

*Outward bound;
We shall ride the stormy seas of life
Undaunted, for youths' hearts are stout
Our hopes are high, our faith is firm.*

*Outward bound;
Unafraid, our armor is the truths
We learned in our short years
With you. We are thrice armed.*

*Outward bound;
Gladly we embrace what comes our way
Adventure paints the picture
Gayest hues. Sorrow is unseen.*

*Outward bound;
The handclasp of a friend, the warm smile
Cheers the way and quickly
We must say our last farewell, we are
Outward bound.*

CHARLES O'BRIEN, '33

The Seniors

We are in truth the "depression" class. Since first we crossed the doorways of the school we have grown to love and revere, we have known nothing but the calamities of depression.

But depression has not interfered with our enjoyment of the happiest days of our youth. We have attained success in our studies, on the gridiron, the court, and the diamond, and we have even braved the terrors of the stage to present the overwhelmingly successful "Remote Control."

When the present seniors entered Central as freshmen, we numbered over five hundred. Some have discontinued school all together, others have found it impossible to pay the increased tuition and have gone elsewhere, two hundred and twenty-three of us have remained faithful.

We base the proof of our achievements on the fact that we were able to obtain a Centripetal in spite of bank failures, and nation-wide distress. This is not a boast, but a plain statement of facts as they stand.

We deeply regret leaving Central. It has been more than a school to us. In all our endeavors in later years we shall be proud to own her as our Alma Mater, and prouder still if she will then own us as worthy sons and daughters.

The Juniors

The smallest class in the school this year is the junior class, numbering as it does two hundred and eighteen students with one hundred and twelve boys and one hundred and six girls. But if quantity is lacking in this class, quality is not.

During their three years at Central these juniors have shown real school spirit and have cooperated to the best of their ability, backing each activity of the year.

The members of this class have excelled especially in literary work. The essay contest proved their ability in this field.

They edited one issue of the Centric, which cannot be too highly praised as an underclassmen's attempt at Journalism. The assembly which they conducted to boost the junior Centric was one of the outstanding programs of the year.

The annual Community Chest Drive was also sponsored by the juniors.

Patrick McCarty, who had so ably piloted the class through the sophomore year was elected Junior class president, other officers chosen were Adeline Yeager, vice-president; Charles Fair, secretary, and Mary Thomas, treasurer.

The members of the present senior class feel confident that the juniors will be capable of carrying on without them next year.

Juniors, the class of '33 extends to you the heartiest wishes for success!

The Sophomores

With the closing of the school year the sophomore class, which numbers two hundred and twenty students, looks back upon its activities with much pleasure. There are one hundred and eight boys in this class and one hundred and twelve girls.

One of the most outstanding events of the year was the class election. This class, following the example of the other classes, decided that a man should be their leader. When ballots were counted, Gerald Boyer took the presidency. Patricia Snyder was elected vice-president; John Horrigan, secretary; and Ruth Durliat, treasurer.

The short story contest, open to sophomores only, was an event of great interest and lively competition among the scribes of the class.

The sophomores cannot be singled out as excelling in any particular field. They are equally proficient in all fields. They have made places for themselves in all organizations. Glee Club, Band, Orchestra and athletic teams all boast a large number of these underclassmen.

The class officers are active members of the Student Council and this class promises to be a splendid junior class next year.

The Freshmen

Approximately two hundred and eighty-two lively freshmen make up the future senior class of 1936. Heedless of the old proverb, "Children should be seen and not heard," these youngsters have made their presence felt in many ways.

Under the leadership of President Jack Yates, this class has accomplished much during the past year. From among their number of which one hundred and forty-two are boys and one hundred and forty are girls, many are to be found in the Band and Orchestra. Then too, there are many students on the honor roll and on the various athletic teams.

This freshmen class has supported every activity of the school. Like their predecessors of last year, they undertook the Library Fund Drive, for which with the assistance of the other classes they collected, stacked, weighed and baled thousands of magazines and papers. In connection with this drive they also sponsored an assembly, the second given by the freshmen of the school. This assembly proved one of the most entertaining of the year.

If these youngsters continue in their enthusiasm, the senior class of 1936 promises to be one of the liveliest senior classes that has ever entered Central.

Here's hoping Freshmen, that you become the best scholars, the best athletes, and the best men and women that this school has ever produced.

Sodality

The most important and the largest organization at Central is the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, of which every student is a member. The principal aims of the Sodality are to stimulate Catholic action among the students, to promote personal holiness, and to increase devotion to the Blessed Virgin.

The leaders of the Sodality this year were: Charles O'Brien, Prefect; Virginia Yates, Vice-Prefect; Sheila Howard, Secretary, and Chester Lynch, Sergeant-at-Arms. Father Gorman is faculty moderator.

Nine hundred Central students attended the annual Sodality Mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Rosary, December 4.

A tri-state convention, held in the auditorium of Central Catholic High School on February 22, attracted sodalists from Fort Wayne, Cleveland, and Detroit. A convention of Toledo schools, was held at St. Ursula's Academy, April 26.

The intense interest shown in questions of morals and personal holiness, discussed at these meetings, is a good sign for the future.

The Centric

The school newspaper, called the Centric is published bi-weekly by the Senior Journalism Class of Central Catholic High School. Since it is outstanding among papers published by Catholic High Schools, it has won favorable comment from the "Catholic Editor" and other magazines devoted to Scholastic publications.

Editor-in-Chief

Although the staff positions are held by members of the Journalism class only, the entire student body participates in the newsgathering, for the Centric is above all, a school project.

This is strictly a self-supporting student publication and while there is guidance and advice on the part of the faculty supervisor, the paper in all its departments is written and edited by the students, and supported by subscriptions and advertising.

Centripetal

The thirteenth volume of the Centripetal and the second "depression issue" makes its bow!

The school annual is of vital importance to the school and to the students. It is all that remains of four long years of work. It represents all that school life is, its joys, its trials, hopes, and ambitions. Instead of deteriorating with age, the yearbook becomes more cherished and receives better care as the years roll by. Its value increases with age because of the memories it has the power to bring back.

Because they realized that the continuance of the annual depended upon them, that future classes would probably find it necessary to follow the policy adopted by the present senior class, to edit or not to edit a yearbook, the class of '33 determined that the thirteenth volume would be published. In the face of bitter opposition and discouraging conditions, the seniors lifted their chins and said, "We can do it!" And they did!

Enough advertising was secured to finance the book and work was begun about the first of April. In the exceedingly short time the following members of the staff labored day and night in order to have this book before June 1.

The Orchestra

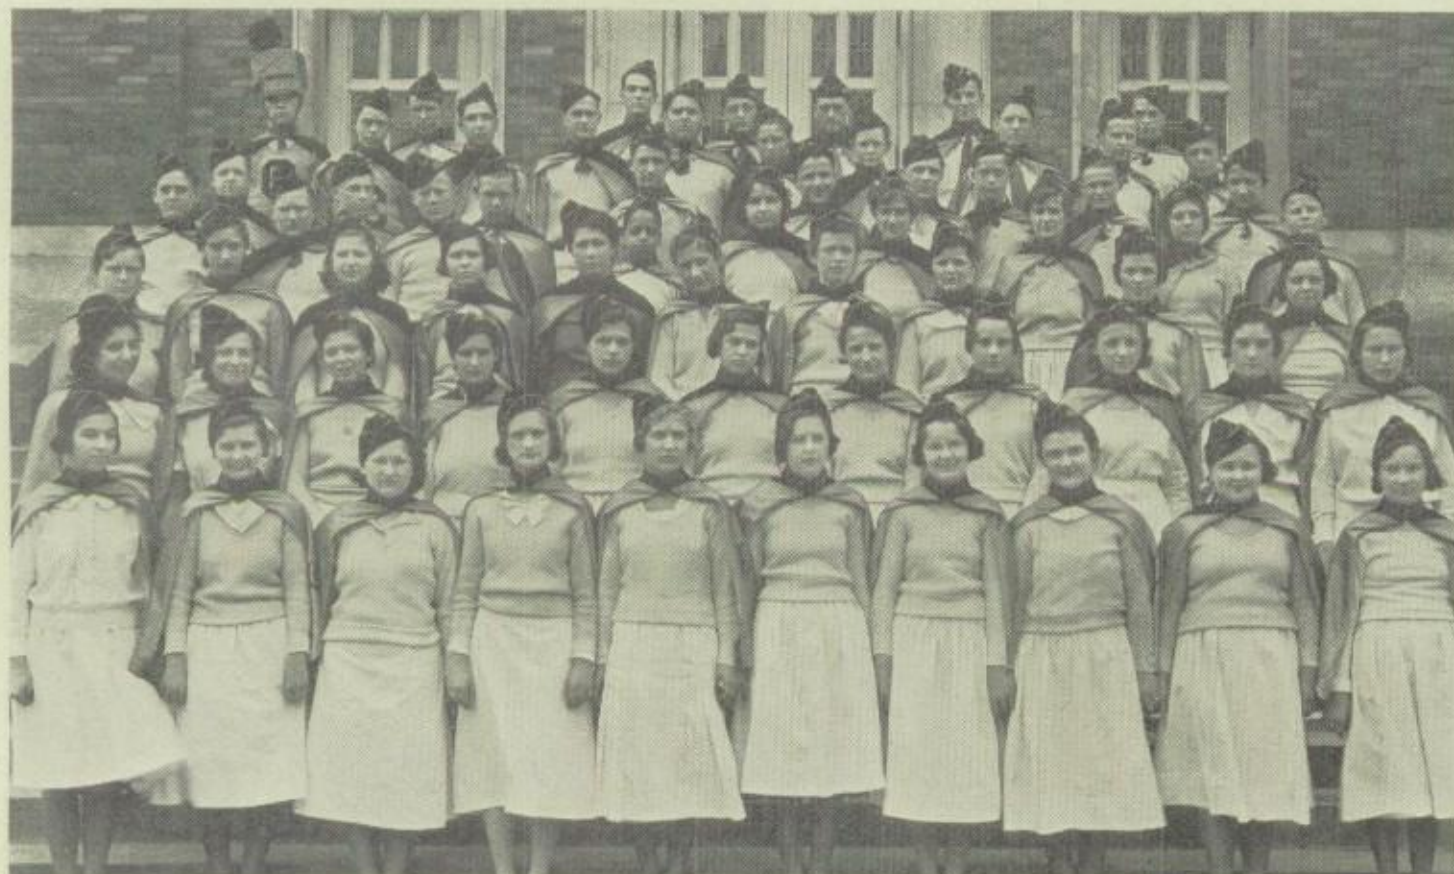

MR. JOSEPH SAINTON
Director of Music

DONALD BLANCHARD.....	President
KENNETH AUBRY.....	Vice-President
EMMA PURCELL.....	Secretary
VIRGINIA TODD.....	Librarians
RITA HUSS.....

The Orchestra, one of the most important extra-curricular activities of a school, is a well-functioned unit at Central. It is under the capable supervision of Mr. Joseph Sainton. Sister M. Camillus, O.S.F., is faculty moderator.

The Orchestra, composed of thirty promising young musicians, besides playing at numerous student assemblies, has made many public appearances during its existence. Its chief work during the past year was the accompaniment at the senior class play, "Remote Control," and the co-presentation with the Glee Club of the comic opera, "Chimes of Normandy." The splendid music furnished at this musical comedy accounted to a great degree for its huge success.

The Band

President	Anne O'Leary
Vice-President	Cecelia O'Connor
Secretary	Claude Bowen
Librarian	Mildred Murphy

"Truly a worthwhile organization," was the comment heard in the audience at the concert given by the Band, Sunday, March 26.

The Band, from a group of untrained students has gradually progressed until it is now one of the largest and most proficient high school bands in the city. Fifty-nine students belong to this organization.

In their scarlet and gray uniforms, the members present a colorful sight at football games as they eagerly play the new school song, while hundreds of students sing, "Central High, your praise we sing."

Besides playing at all football games, this group has furnished music at most of the assemblies this year.

This organization is under the able direction of Mr. Joseph Sainton.

MISS MARY IDA TALTY,
Director of Dramatics

Dramatics

The greatest credit for the extremely successful dramatic season of 1933 belongs to Miss Ida Talty, Central's dramatic director. Due to her tireless, dynamic personality which she puts into her productions, the dramatic pieces of Central have won a reputation throughout the city. Much praise also goes to Mr. Joseph Sainton, our peerless musical director, for his direction of the Orchestra and Glee Club.

A hitherto unattempted type of play and one extremely difficult for high school production, "Remote Control," a mystery drama, was chosen for the annual class play. This play, presented January 20 and 21, proved so successful that it was necessary to repeat it a third night.

Real dramatic ability was displayed by Richard O'Rourke, as the "world's premier radio announcer," and by Clara O'Loughlin, his winsome secretary. Jack Fischer in the comic role, Mary Ann Forester, high-pressure publicity agent, Charles O'Brien, as Doctor Workman, and Donald Spencer as Sergeant Devine, were outstanding.

Other members of the cast were: Mary Hiller, Virginia Connell, Wilma Schlageter, Thomas Dwyer, John Ackerman, Betty Holland, Virginia Mills, Mary Todd, Ann Alice Layden, Mary Catherine Holt, Marie O'Hara, Florence Mizerny, Catherine Small, Florence Strohl, Ann Pedro, Bernard Menke, Raymond Niezgoda, Clarence Fackelman, Raymond Early, Ralph Robedeau, Francis Kotcherowski, and Donald Krupp.

The comic opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," presented by the Orchestra and Glee club on the evenings of April 28 and 29th, achieved a signal success. The Orchestra deserves especial commendation for the quality of the music furnished.

The work of Betty Holland in the leading part, that of Germaine, the lost Marchioness, and Jack Fischer, playing opposite, was outstanding. Mary Todd, as Serpolette, the village gossip, completely captivated the audience. The part of Jean Grenicheux, fisherman, was well played by Norman Gardner, while Bernard Menke played the character role of the miser, Gaspard. Other outstanding members of the cast were: Donald Krupp, Frederick Miller, Wilma Schlageter, Mary Alice Gstalder, Agnes Thibert, Mary Frances Dunn, Frederick, Otte, and Francis Kotcherowski. These players were supported by a chorus of 52.

Another factor contributing to these successes was the art class. These students made posters advertising the plays and painted much of the scenery.

The members of the executive staff were as follows:

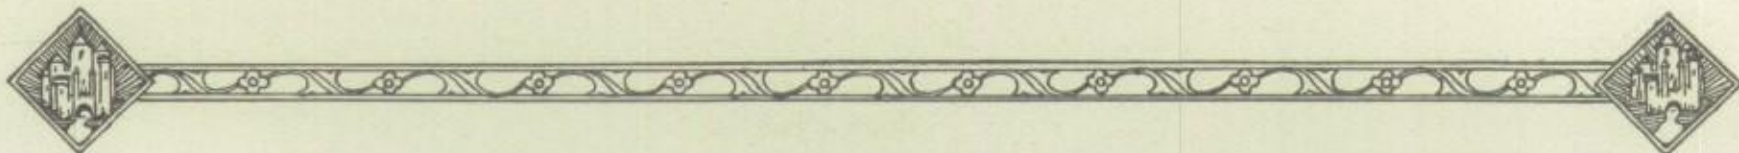

Ticket Staff—Thomas Scheller, Mary E. McHugh, Dorothy J. Burns, Lena DiSalle.

Producing Staff—Robert Murphy, Arlene Youngs, Harold Mattlin, Bernard Bihn.

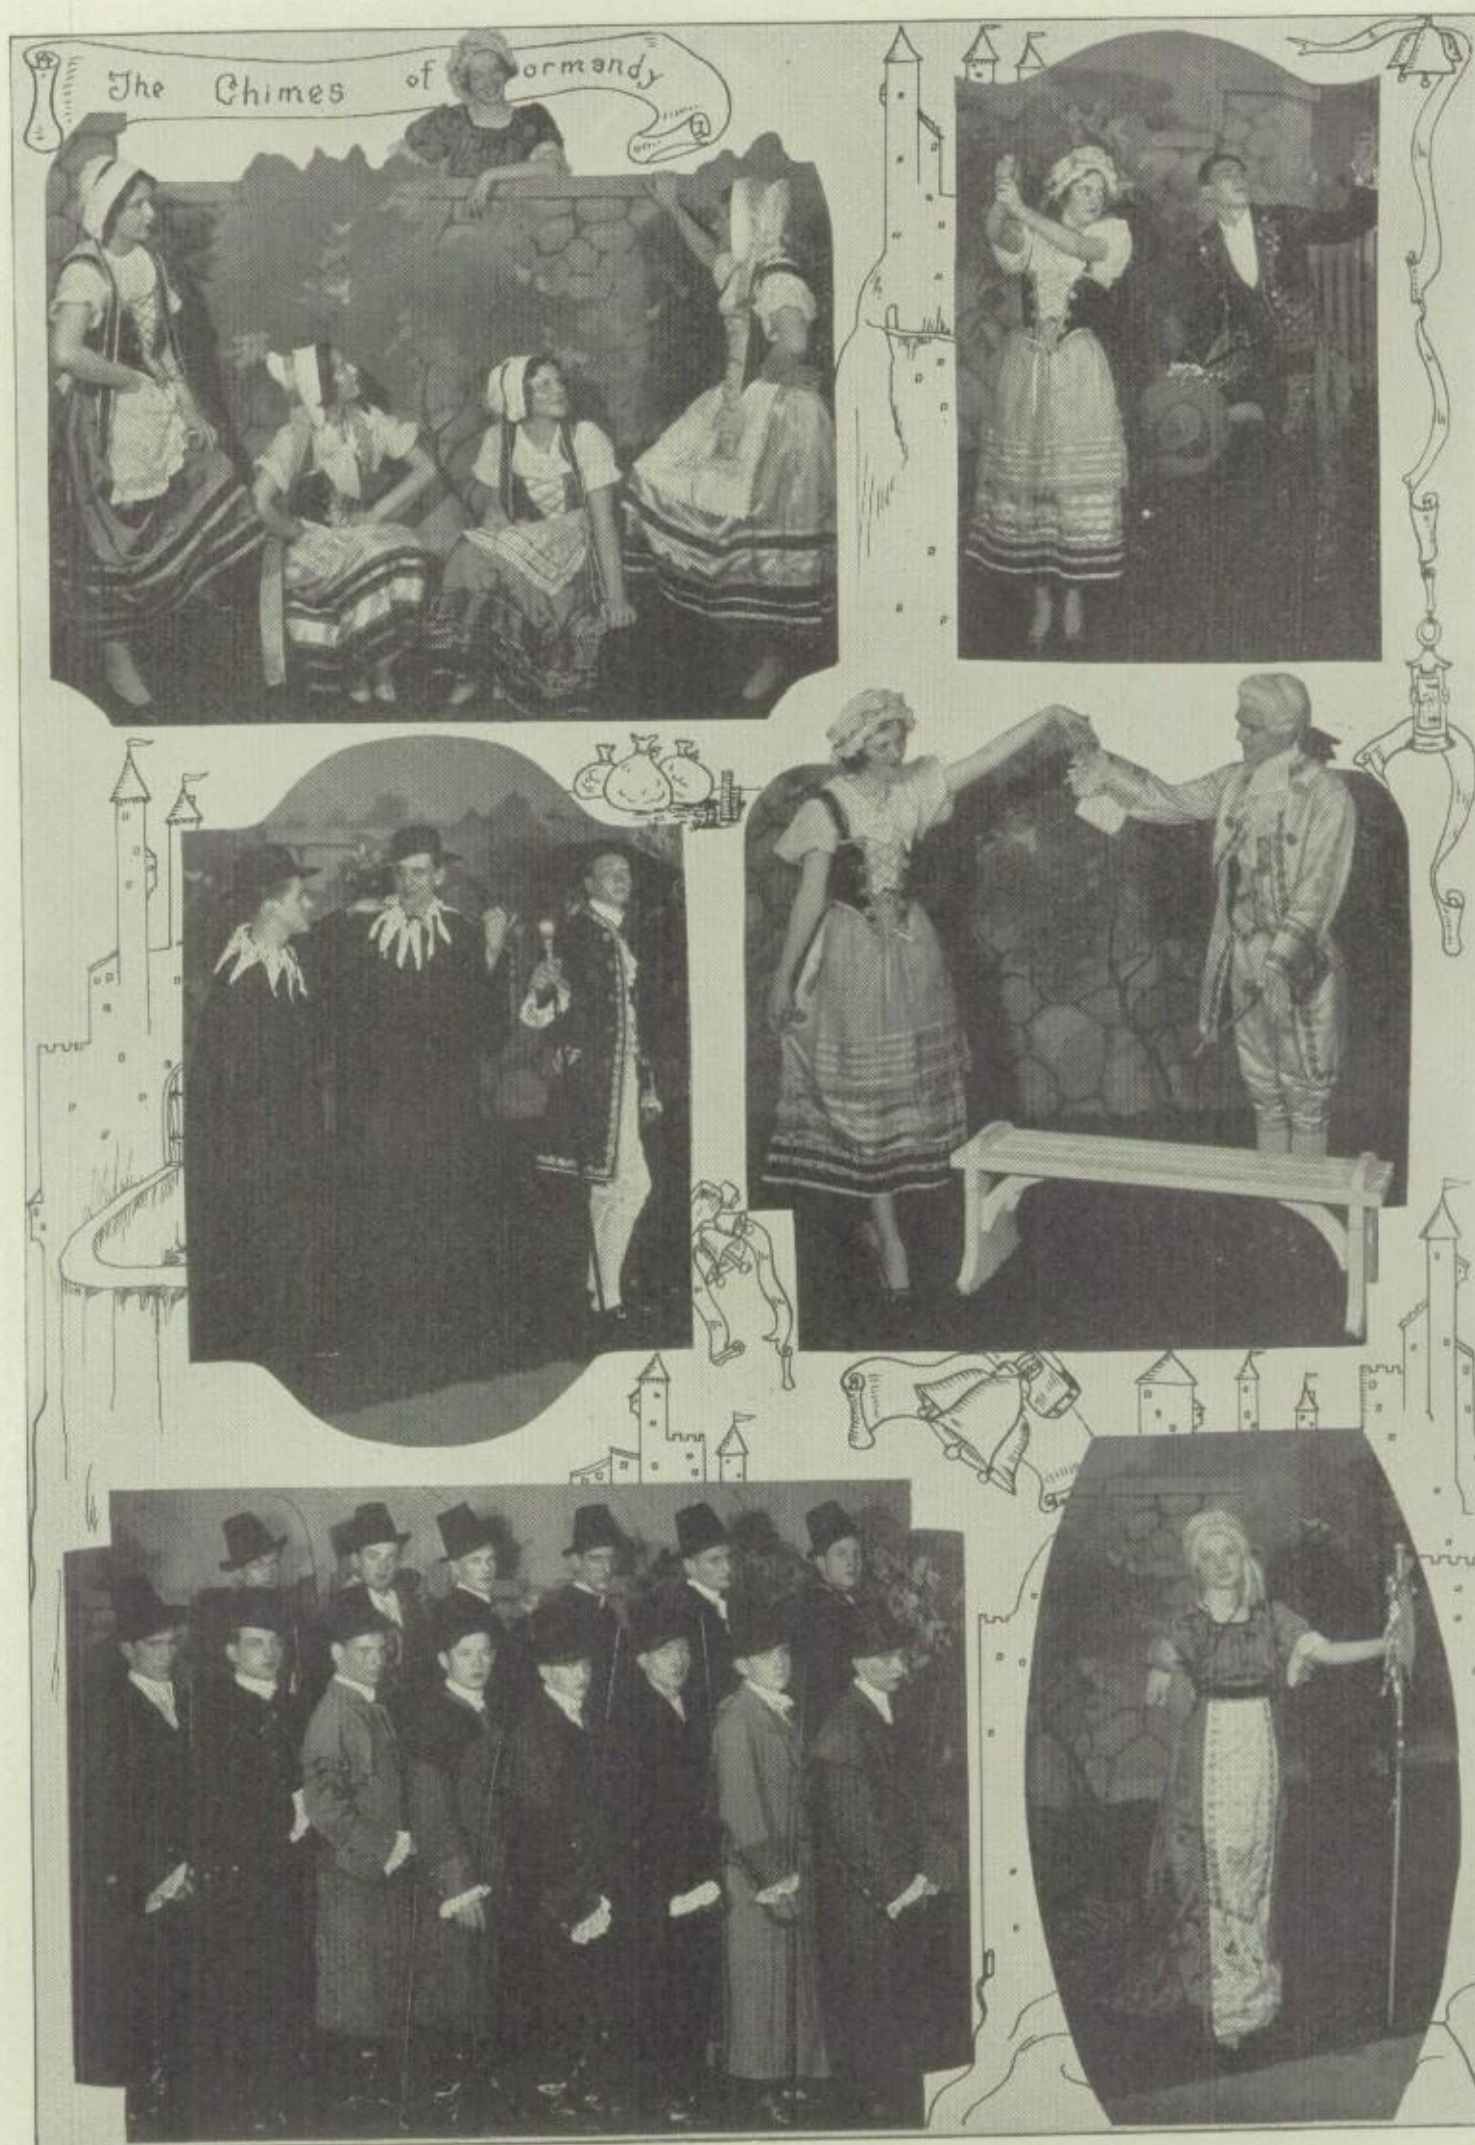

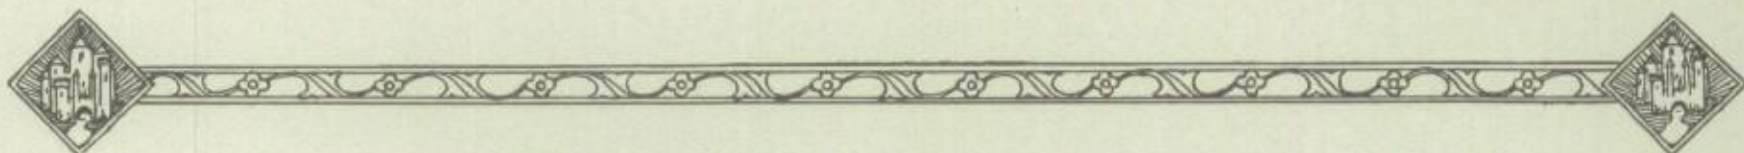

Publicity Staff—Raymond Early, Virginia Yates, Helen Mroczkowski.

Board of Fiscal Control

Through the efforts of the Board of Fiscal Control, with the Rt. Rev. Monsignor E. M. O'Hare, a financier of recognized ability, acting as Financial Director, the scant budget of Central Catholic High School has been stretched to cover all deficits of the past few years.

The Board is composed of six pastors of parishes in the Diocese of Toledo. Each year two members are retired and two others are appointed by the Most Rev. Bishop to fill the vacancies. Those appointed serve for a term of three years. Present members of the Board of Fiscal Control include the Rev. Edmund Widmer, St. Agnes' parish, Chairman; Rev. George Branigan, Good Shepherd parish; Rev. Arthur J. Sawkins, Immaculate Conception parish; Rev. Thomas Kennedy, St. Teresa's parish; Rev. J. L. Sassen, St. Louis' parish, and Rev. F. S. Legowski, St. Anthony's parish.

The greatest task of the Board is to supervise the finances of the school. This is no easy task, since financial conditions are so bad. Last spring the school was faced with a large deficit and it was feared that it might be necessary to close the school. However, with a courage and determination typical of our priests, the six members of the Board after seeking the advice of all the pastors of the city of Toledo, decided to launch a summer festival.

The parishes of the city were divided into six groups, and, together with the Knights of Columbus, they operated booths and sold chances on valuable prizes. These prize tickets were sold by the students of Central and by the parochial school children through out the diocese. It was expected that this undertaking would realize $15,000, but the generosity of the citizens of Toledo was underestimated. When the four-day festival was finished, June 25, and all expenses had been paid, it was found that a net profit of $22,000 had been realized.

This overwhelming success encouraged the Board to sponsor a similar undertaking this year on June 14, 15, 16, and 17.

Thus has the Board of Fiscal Control cared for the interests of Central Catholic High School. We students realize that we cannot thank these men enough for their work in our behalf. We can only wish God's blessing on their work in the future, and pledge them our loyal support, in whatever undertaking they may plan as long as Central Catholic High School endures.

Football

Coach "AL" SACKSTEDER

Facing the toughest schedule of its career, and crippled by injuries, Central's fighting football team managed to garner but one victory out of the eight games played. However, in only one game were the Scarlet and Grey warriors decisively beaten, the other losses were by one point or one touchdown where the team that got the breaks won the decision. Every lad who played deserved all the praise accorded to him, for scrappy, courageous football, in the face of overwhelming odds.

Central opened the season September 24, engaging the DeVilbiss Tigers on Curtiss Field. The Tigers who had a game under their belt, scored first in the second period, and passed for the extra point. The final period saw Central's Toth, batter his way through the entire DeVilbiss team for a touchdown. However, the plunge for point failed and DeVilbiss left the field, winner by a point margin.

One week later, the Central gridders chalked up their first and only win of the season over the Whitmer High aggregation. Central scored four times, but since the second and third teams played almost the entire game, the contest was more onesided than the 24-0 score indicates.

On October 8, our team, confident of repeating the victory of last year, journeyed to Libbey. After a scoreless first period, Schalaff of Libbey carried the ball across for the only score of the game, late in the second quarter. Toth of Central ran sixty yards through the entire Libbey line for a touchdown in the last period, but the referee's eyes were sharper than the fans and the ball was called back. Central lost the game 7-0, but a far greater loss was felt, when it was learned that Toth was injured and out for the rest of the season.

Mad with the desire to prove what they were capable of, the team invaded Scott stadium October 15. In the second quarter Central blocked a Scott punt and scored a safety. Scott clicked in the third period and Gaines, flashy Scott quarterback carried the ball over for a touchdown. This game should have been a Central victory and it was morally, although the score stood Scott 6—Central 2. Outplayed, the Scott boys were determined and pushed every Central slant at their goal line. Even the fleet-footed Hosfeld was unable to do much against the Collingwood Avenue outfit.

DR. JOSEPH A. MUENZER

In a thrilling night game, October 21, the Crimson Flashes of Elyria defeated the Scarlet-jerseyed warriors 15-6. Hosfeld displayed that speed that made him always a scoring threat, when he dashed 80 yards for Central's only score.

Although going down to an 18-0 defeat, the Irish covered themselves with glory the night of October 29, when they played the national scholastic champions, Waite High School team, to a standstill during the first half of a thrilling game. Time after time fleet-footed Al Hosfeld threatened the Waite goal line only to be hurled back by the desperate secondary defense. Not until the second half did the highly touted Lengel of Waite break through Central's line and score. This he did three times, aided by perfect blocking on the part of his fellow teammates.

scene that night was the ovation Steve Toth received when he entered the stadium on crutches, ready to lend his moral support to his teammates, whom he could aid in no other way.

November 5, saw the Junior Order Home boys of Tiffin walk off the Central field with a 27-25 victory. In spite of the fine running of Hosfeld and the bull-like plunges of the great fullback, Murphy, Central was unable to develop the necessary punch to score the touchdown needed to win.

The last game of the year with our traditional rival, Woodward, was played on Armistice Day. Fighting desperately Central warded off all attempts of the Polar Bears to score. Finally late in the third quarter Kokocinski of Woodward carried the ball to Central's goal-line and on a doubtful decision by the referee Woodward was awarded a touchdown. In the final period Hosfeld carried the ball over for Central but the officials ruled that he had stepped outside and the ball was called back.

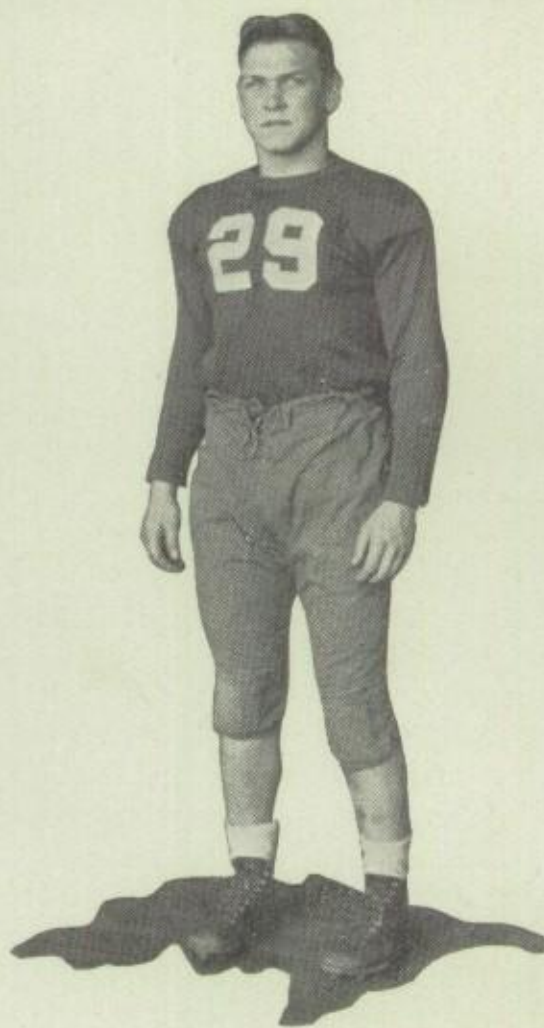

This game ended the most unsuccessful and yet the most successful season Central has ever had. In spite of discouraging losses, and heart-rending bad breaks, the Irish squad entered each game determined to show the world that when a Central team goes down it goes down fighting. And the student body won the title of the All-City Cheering section. Never was a team so deserving of praise and encouragement, and never before was a student body so generous in giving that praise and encouragement. Last fall the students realized what the spirit of Central Catholic High School really is.

Basketball

With what appeared to be a championship squad, Central won four games before she met defeat at the hands of Woodward. Central finished fourth in the city race, losing to St. John's, Waite, DeVilbiss and Woodward, and defeating Scott and Libbey. This is the most successful season basketball has experienced at Central, and there is ground for hope that we will turn out championship teams in the future.

Golf

After experiencing three rather mediocre seasons in succession, Central at last has found the right combination, with which it hopes to regain the exalted position our golfers have once held. Outstanding players this year are: John Corbett, Victor Extine, and Robert Bumbaugh.

BASEBALL

Great things are expected of the baseball squad of '33, since a veteran team has returned to do battle in the scramble for the city Championship.

The season opened with Central losing to DeVilbiss 10-7 in an exciting game. Then came Scott and defeat once more, 11-0, but, true to the traditions of Central the team promises to fight until the last foe has been vanquished.

NORMAN HINTON

In the second year of interscholastic boxing, Central managed to capture two individual championships. Bob Murphy won the light weight title by knocking out all of his opponents and Norm Hinton, clever little feather-weight, took first honors in his division by outpointing his rivals.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC LEAGUE

President	Mary Louise Boerger
Vice-President	Mary Hiller
Secretary	Dorothy Christie
Treasurer	Mary Maginn
Freshman Representative	Bernadine Gancarz

The Girls' Athletic League is now in its fourth year of existence and is serving its purpose well. Besides creating greater interest in athletics among the girls at Central, it also sponsors social gatherings which are well-attended.

This year the club's membership, unlike that of former years, is limited in number, having only one hundred members. The hundred girls who, in the first semester, receive the highest number of points which are awarded according to attendance, dress, and participation in sports, are eligible for membership in the Athletic League.

The new members were entertained by the older girls at a Play Day, March 18. The main purpose of this celebration was to inspire good sportsmanship and to afford all a good time.

As a result of effective planning on the part of Mary Louise Boerger, president of the League, and those who assisted her on the committees; Martha Jendris, program; Mary Kathryn Monroe, Ruth Durliat, Henrietta Ignatowski, and Margaret Walentick, service; Dorothy Jacobs, and Agnes Bruetsch, equipment and publicity; Mary Maginn, Eleanor Gstalder and Peggy Sherriff, social, the day was an event which will not soon be forgotten.

It was the first time this form of entertainment had been provided at Central and it reached the highest expectations.

SECOND ROW: Esther Chevalier, Thelma Thompson, Dorothy Christie, Mary Thomas, Rose Okenka, Mary Hiller.

MONOGRAM WINNERS

Each year the Girls' Athletic League awards monograms of silver or bronze to the most deserving girls. These monograms are among the most coveted awards given in the school.

Winners of monograms this year are: Mary Louise Boerger, Dorothy Christie, Mary Hiller, Esther Chevalier, Amelia Noble, Rose Okenka, Eileen Winterhalter, Vivian Braatz, Thelma Thompson, and Mary Thomas.

Letters for the year's work will be awarded at the banquet which will be held June 1.

Mary Louise Boerger has the distinction of being Central's All-Around Girls' Athlete, a title coveted by the members of the Girls' Athletic League.

The winner of the title is not elected but chosen for her high standing in all types of gymnasium work. The girl receiving the greatest number of points is acclaimed "The All-Around Girl Athlete."

Miss Mary Ida Talty, director of girls' physical education, is to be commended for the fine program of athletics which she has inaugurated at Central. Real sportsmanship is the keyword of the department which has as its end, the development of physical and moral character.

But—the bigger they are, the harder
they fall. Junior Order 26—Central 32.
21. We wish you a load of Christmas cheer
See you again, sometime next year.

JANUARY

6. Scott fought hard but had to give in
Are we happy? Just look at us grin.
Scott 14—Central 22.
14. Fostoria was good, boy, how she did fight!
Though of course, our hoopsters won that night. Fostoria 22—Central 23.
20. Woodward, mighty Polar Bear
Gave our team an awful scare.
Woodward 26—Central 16.
- 20-21-22. "Remote Control" Oh play of plays,
It filled the house three nights—not days.
24. Whoever invented a mid-year test
Deserves the prize for first-rate pest.
25. Cigars were sported by the athletic boys
Their coach is a father—joy of joys!
(Congrats, Al)
27. Libbey came and Libbey saw
But Central conquered—Raw! Raw! Raw!
Central 28—Libbey 25.

Calendar

FEBRUARY

7. Those Rah-Rah boys from St. John's
High
Defeated Central, my oh my!
Central 19—St. John's 21.

10. St. Joseph's fell before our team
But not so bad as it might seem.

17. Student Council hits its stride
Disorder in hallways took a ride.

Waite High's Indians painted green and red
Lifted the scalp from Central's head.
Waite 31—Central 21.

22. The Sodality convention filled our gym
Much was discussed with vigor and vim.

24. Cheers and jeers created a row
"Bolgeresque" made its first bow.

MARCH

6. Something now we have, by hops!
Student Council traffic cops.

8. Locker inspection, what a day!
It seems we students pay and pay.

17. St. Patrick's Day, we all wore green
Not an Orangeman could be seen.

French students happy—why not, pray?
For "La Jeunesse" appeared today.

18. G.A.L.'s were full of vim
Had first play day in Central's gym.

24. Our Seniors wrote fine poetry
One perhaps, a bard will be.

- 29-30. Vocation talks gave forth the truths
Of great careers that await our youths.

APRIL

1. Free day—wait, don't throw that rock
I mean 'twas free after three o'clock.

3. This time the State presented the test
We poor dears don't get a rest.

7. Annual staff at last announced.
Grave looks on faces, quite pronounced.

- 10-11-12. Retreat takes students as if by storm,
Freshmen threaten to reform.

19. Back to school we had to go
Only Seniors, willingly so.

28. Junior Centric published today
Oh well, let the youngsters play.

- 28-29. "Chimes of Normandy" we say,
Was quite an artistic play.

MAY

2. "The play's the thing," our Romans say
Presenting "Loquamur Latine."

10. When mighty seniors take a hand
Assemblies are unusually grand.

12. Student Council throws a dance,
Seniors and Juniors gaily prance.

13. Bookkeeping contest again this year
Central inspired her rivals with fear.

14. Senior girls attend Mary Manse tea
Charming guests, most certainly.

17. Mary Lucille Roësner, salutatorian
Charles O'Brien, valedictorian.

26. The last Centric of the year,
Journalism class shed many a tear.

JUNE

- 1-2. Seniors make their last retreat
And Satan takes one more defeat.

7. Commencement Day—we say good-by
To the school we love, Central Catholic
High.
